KNR Constructions Limited (KNRCL) is a multi-domain infrastructure project development company. We are among the leading providers of integrated engineering, procurement and construction (EPC) services for road and highway networks of the nation. Leveraging our domain experience and expertise in the EPC segment, we also undertake projects in the important sectors of irrigation, water management and urban water infrastructure.

With our resources, which include approximately 530 talented employees and a diversified fleet of latest, speciality construction equipment, we have completed complex and high value projects in 12 states across the country since our inception. These operations conducted across a range of geographies, on different and challenging terrains, has enabled us to amass a full range of skills and capabilities.

KNRCL is renowned for extensive knowledge and experience, technological advancements, exemplary execution records, superior safety and commitment to deliver. The trust and belief reposed in us by our clients can be gauged by the 'Repeat Orders' we have secured over the years. Further, our excellent performance has also entrenched our reputation as a reliable and trusted joint-venture partner for large value infrastructure projects.

An ISO 9001:2000 certified company;
KNRCL has been in service of the nation since 1995.

Delivering Growth through Disciplined Approach

What you do know about KNR Constructions Limited is that we are a multi-domain infrastructure development organisation delivering technically complex and high value projects. Simplistically put, with our cranes, tractors and excavators, we are lifting, moving, assembling and building critical infrastructure to take the nation on the faster road to growth.

What you don't know is that while carrying out these highly complex projects, we bring a strong differentiating factor, which clearly elevates our performance from the rest in the industry.

We call it a disciplined approach.

Whether you look at our robust engineering expertise or rigorous procurement capabilities; or the way we have acquired and built our state-of-the-art machinery repository or the way we have demonstrated exceptional project execution and management or maintained a solid balance sheet.

A rock solid disciplined approach underpins everything we undertake and everything we deliver.

And we are undeniably very proud of it. And for good reasons too.

For it is that which has enabled us to complete engineering marvels on time or even in many cases, ahead of schedule. It is this driving force that has enabled us to win the admiration of our clients, secure big-ticket and repeat orders and deeply entrench our reputation as a leading provider of infrastructure construction services.

Today, our disciplined approach is providing us more confidence and conviction to bid for larger projects and increase our geographic presence. And while we are doing all of this, it is taking us resolutely on the trajectory of higher growth.

Adaptation and evolving to the external environment is necessary for long-term success. However, at the same time, there are selected things which must remain unaltered. For us, we have found the constant success factor in our disciplined approach. That attitude, we assure you, will not change.

Inspiring

Our Disciplined Approach

Vision

To develop KNRCL as a centre of excellence in the field of infrastructure services.

To leverage new opportunities of growth by diversifying into the fields of mining, laying of pipelines and railways.

Mission

To emerge as the most competent builder of projects across a broad spectrum of work by delivering complete client satisfaction.

Values

In our pursuit of excellence, we are guided by the values of honesty, integrity, fairness, accountability and reliability. They have been and will continue to be vital to our success.

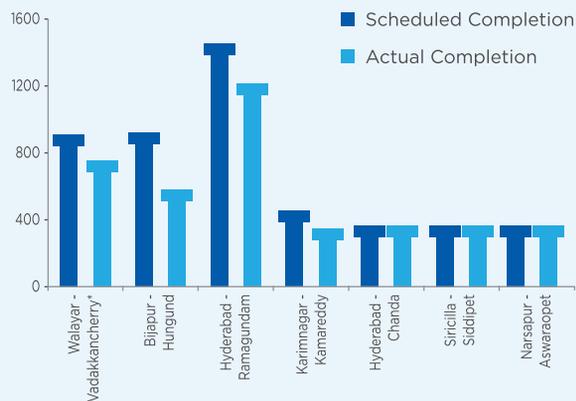

Reflecting

Our Disciplined Approach

Excellent Execution Record

Through our disciplined approach in project execution, we have been able to achieve an exemplary and unblemished track record of completing projects on time and in many cases, even ahead of schedule. Unbelievable in an industry where delays are considered inevitable and correspondingly increased project cost an obvious occurrence. Completing projects ahead of scheduled date has enabled us to earn early or timely completion bonus which drive up the Internal Rate of Return (IRR) for the project.

Project completion ahead of schedule (days)

Presently, KNRCL is on the closing stage of Walayar - Tollways roadway project in Kerala. The project with 95% work completed as of June 2015 is progressing well-ahead of scheduled date of completion of November 2015, despite adverse weather conditions and many other challenges.

Unparalleled Engineering and Construction

Through the high involvement of management at every stage of project execution and our rich resource pool of talented and professional employees, we have been able to construct engineering landmarks. Further, maximum use of Company owned assets and minimum sub-contracting enables us to straddle the entire value chain and facilitate seamless and reliable project execution.

A glimpse into some of the road and highway projects that KNRCL is associated with and which showcases our supreme and unquestionable expertise in the field.

Right Selection of Projects

To de-risk our operations as far as possible, we have evolved a scientific bidding and execution methodology, instead of an aggressive bidding approach, which reinforces our confidence in succeeding in this business.

For instance, as a part of our long-term commitment to enhance shareholder value, we are highly focussed towards projects on the EPC model where risk exposure is substantially lower. In the Build-Operate-Transfer (BOT) space, which is more capital intensive, projects are bid for only when they offer a high IRR. Further, as a strategic decision, the Company bids for projects only when legal and environmental clearances are complete or are not going to be a hurdle.

Managing Director's Letter

Dear Shareholders,

It gives me great pleasure to report that KNRCL has had another successful year with excellent growth prospects. Our consistent disciplined approach over the years has enabled us to create predictable outcomes for our projects – and for our stakeholders. Driving this disciplined approach, we have transformed our Company for the future, ready to make the most of the burgeoning opportunities as India invests in creating world-class infrastructure to help achieve its growth potential.

While the incumbent government has shown commitment and promise to pursue infrastructure reforms with vigour, recovery in the construction and infrastructure sector during the year under review was still gradual. Most industry players are still reporting muted growth due to stalled or slow-moving projects or stretched financial positions. Defying industry trends, KNRCL has registered remarkable performance. Total turnover stood at ₹ 8,761.30 million in FY 2014-15, up from ₹ 8,347.90 million in FY 2013-14. Net profit increased to ₹ 730.10 million as against ₹ 609.80 million achieved in the previous year. Excellent project execution enabling timely completion of projects and cost control, prudent management of working capital and hands-on involvement of our professional team has ensured that we have been able to deliver superior performance despite the sector not yet gaining full momentum. Moreover, our strong balance sheet with a debt-equity ratio which is among the lowest in the industry is a reflection of our strategic execution, strong oversight, and broad operational skills.

At KNRCL, we believe continuous improvement in project execution skills is a critical component to enable transformation. Driving this ideology, we are happy to report that our Walayar - Tollways roadway project in Kerala is expected to be completed ahead of its scheduled date in November 2015. It is this consistent superlative performance in a sector prone to time and cost overrun that has enabled us to win new work from repeat customers and concurrently, be awarded with projects from new customers. We assure you that we remain resolute in upholding this culture of timely completion and thus create more opportunities for growth and value creation.

Industry developments, taken as a whole, are producing substantial opportunities for players in the construction and infrastructure sector. Budgetary allocations in FY 2015-16 for investments in infrastructure have increased by ₹ 70,000 crore, over the previous fiscal period. Establishing an Infrastructure Fund for removing constraints in availability of funding, strong thrust on creating transparency in environmental clearances and making land acquisition easier, re-visiting and revitalising the present Public-Private Participation (PPP) model with an aim to remove existing bottlenecks, and expediting and expanding project awarding under the EPC model are among the key measures undertaken by the government to provide a renewed impetus to the investment cycle and infrastructure sector in the country. Step-up in awarding road and highway projects has already been witnessed going into FY 2015-16.

With these industry developments accelerating, we are confident that our success and reputation as a leading EPC player positions us well to be a beneficiary of the infusion of projects that should follow, thereby enabling us to increase our order inflow and deliver ample benefits to our stakeholders. Leveraging our competencies in the EPC arena, the Company is also reviewing opportunities in allied sectors of mining, laying of pipelines and railways. We are confident that as and when we pursue prospects in this space, based on our disciplined approach, we have been able to harness these opportunities with equal success.

Our success is ultimately dependent on our ability to win new projects, and I am pleased with our progress. Entering FY 2015-16, we have an impressive order book of ₹ 13,181.30 million, all of which reinforce our confidence and enthusiasm about KNRCL's next phase of growth. Of these orders, ₹ 12,558.08 million is from road projects and the rest from irrigation and water projects. Further, our long-standing relationship with like-minded companies places us strongly to bid for projects with larger parameters. Leveraging the complementary capabilities and synergies made possible through these joint-venture associations, we are optimistic of unearthing new opportunities for growth.

We finished FY 2014-15 as a stronger enterprise, poised for growth. Going forward, we foresee attractive market opportunities, quietly confident in the wisdom of our stable balance sheet and right selection of projects. Also, based on our past track record and disciplined focus, we are optimistic of generating more value from this industry environment than many of our peers in the industry.

As we move towards the most exciting time in our Company's history, we are grateful to KNRCL's stakeholders for their faith and commitment. We aim to earn your continued trust every day. And finally, sincere thanks to KNRCL employees, whose passion and unwavering dedication to our mission of disciplined approach makes us the best in the industry.

We look forward to sharing our successes with you as we realise this Company's great potential and achieve the goals we have set for ourselves.

Thank you.

Yours Sincerely,

Management Discussion & Analysis

Macro-Economic Perspective

Indian economy has shown signs of revival during FY15. Current account deficit and elevated inflation, both impediments to higher growth, have declined considerably. The new government changed the base year for calculation of economic growth from FY05 to FY12 and also introduced the concept of Gross Value Added at the aggregate and sector levels apart from revising industry groups. As per the Central Statistical Office (CSO), based on the new series, real GDP growth rate for FY15 is 7.3% as against the revised FY14 GDP growth of 6.9% (from 4.7% as per the old series).

The revival process is expected to gain momentum in FY16 with the policy environment turning more favourable in recent months for higher economic activity. The government's clear focus on simplifying procedures for doing business in India, bringing in a straightforward and transparent taxation system, relaxation of FDI in few sectors, allowing auction of coal mines to the private sector, and closing allocations in the telecom sector at a fast pace are welcome changes. Resolving of structural bottlenecks and faster clearances for projects in infrastructure and industry are also expected to facilitate investment. Based on the new methodology, as per the CSO estimates, real GDP growth rate is expected to be in the region of 8-8.5% in FY16. The International Monetary Fund (IMF) predicts that India will emerge as the fastest growing major economy in the world, with growth expected to rise to 7.5% in FY16.

Infrastructure Creation

The inadequacy of quality infrastructure in India has undeniably hampered the pace of economic growth. Cognizant of the pressing need to improve infrastructure creation because of its strong forward and backward multiplier effect on the economy, the Budget 2015 includes a number of much-needed measures that should encourage increased activity and investment in India's infrastructure sector.

As per the budget, investment in infrastructure will go up by Rs.70,000 crore in the year 2015-16, over the previous fiscal period. In an aim to improve the environment for private infrastructure investment, the budget announced the creation of a 'National Investment and Infrastructure Fund' with annual inflows of Rs. 20,000 crore. The Fund will be expected to invest in public sector infrastructure finance companies which, in turn, will be able to leverage their higher credit rating to access domestic and international debt markets.

The budget also announced tax free bonds for investing in rail, road and irrigation projects through public private partnership (PPP) models. Apart from deploying public money for the development of infrastructure projects, the government also intends to revisit the present PPP (Public Private Partnership) mechanism to remove the shortcomings so as to attract increased private participation.

Further, Rs. 25,000 crore has also been allotted to the Rural Infrastructure Development Fund.

Roads

India has the second largest road network in the world spanning a total of 4.9 million km. Roads in India transport over 60 per cent of all goods and 85 per cent of total passenger traffic. The roads and bridge infrastructure industry is expected to be worth US$ 19.2 billion by FY17. The National Highways account for 1.9 per cent of the total road network in India. Prospects for the Indian road sector seem bright with the renewed thrust by the present government to accelerate road creation. The planned allocation to the road transport and highways ministry stands at Rs. 42,913 crore in 2015-16, an increase of Rs. 14,031 crore or 48% from the previous year. The sector also stands to benefit from improvement in traffic and hope for lower interest rates in FY16.

In FY15, the government was able to achieve 8,000 km of road construction from 3,621 km in FY14. Source: http://zeenews.india.com/news/india/we-will-lay-more-than-30-km-of-highways-per-day-gadkari_1603318.html Increased emphasis is also being given to achieve a sharp step-up in project awarding, especially under the engineering, procurement and construction (EPC) mode as road construction firms are still showing tepid response to built-operate-transfer (BOT) formats. In FY15, NHAI awarded 3100 km of road projects out of which 2400 km was on EPC basis and balance 700 km was on BOT basis. In contrast, in FY14, only 1400 km of road projects were awarded through the EPC mode. Project awarding is expected to pick up greater pace with the government's strong resolve to clear land acquisition issues, environmental clearances, land financing etc. NHAI is targeting to award about 9,000 kilometres in FY16. About 50 percent of it will be either in BOT or hybrid annuity mode and the remaining 50 percent in EPC mode. The hybrid annuity mode is a mix of EPC and BOT formats, with the government and the private companies sharing the total project cost in the ratio of 40:60 respectively.

The Ministry of Road Transport and Highways (MORTH) is also considering to develop 1231 highway projects of total 37000 km in order to improve the road infrastructure with an investment of Rs. 3.5 lakh crore. The government is also planning to build 5600 km of roads along the borders and coastal areas under the 'Bharat Mala' project at an estimated cost of Rs. 56,000 crore. Irrigation

In India, there is an immense need to provide irrigation to mitigate risk to the farmer since a large majority of the farm lands are rain-fed. Besides reducing dependence on the monsoons, irrigation facilities also help to bring more land under cultivation, reduce instability in output levels, create job opportunities, make available electricity and transport facilities, control floods and prevent droughts.

With an aim to improve irrigation facilities and ensure effective water management, the government has made an allocation of Rs. 5300 crore under the Pradhan Mantri Krishi Sinchai Yojana (PMKSY) in FY16 to support micro-irrigation, watershed development.

Company Overview

KNR Constructions Limited (KNRCL) is among the leading infrastructure companies of India. Over the years, since its incorporation in 1995, through exemplary track performance of constructing landmark infrastructure projects in record time, KNRCL has moved to a special echelon. KNRCL's strength lies in its ability to provide EPC services across various fast growing sectors namely construction and maintenance of roads, highways, flyovers and bridges. Its clientele in the road segment includes National Highway Authority of India (NHAI), state governments and private companies. The Company is also an established player in irrigation and water management segments.

KNRCL has forayed into infrastructure projects independently as well as through collaborations. Its excellent track record of execution has made it the preferred partner for executing road projects. Collaboration with like-minded companies has enabled KNRCL to undertake high-value projects and increase its geographic presence.

KNRCL has successfully completed 5,888 km of projects across 12 states in India. In-house specialised and construction equipment as against leasing the same and the services of skilled personnel are the Company's key differentiators enabling its impressive performance.

Leveraging its experience and expertise in the construction business, the Company is well-positioned to foray into new business areas while strengthening existing business activities.

Major Achievements during the Year

During the year under review, KNRCL has been awarded a number of projects which further strengthens its position as a leading provider of construction services across the infrastructure space. At present, the order book stands at about Rs. 1318.13 crore with Rs. 174.79 crore coming through private concessionaires and about Rs. 1143.34 crore from various government organisations.

Opportunities

Thrust on infrastructure development: The government has given a renewed thrust to infrastructure projects in recent months to reduce infrastructure supply-demand gap. Measures include speedy resolving of issues which have stymied such ventures and creating a benign environment which will facilitate private and foreign investment. KNRCL, a leading player in the infrastructure space is well-positioned to benefit from the government's focus on sectors like roads highways & flyovers, water management and urban infrastructure.

Sharp revival in EPC mode: The government has shown a keen intent to grant road projects under the EPC mode. KNRCL, with its proven track record in the EPC sphere will be looking at leveraging this opportunity to the fullest.

Maintenance & Upgrades: High traffic density in recent years has necessitated the need for road expansion and regular upgrades. Domain expertise in road construction provides sustainable growth opportunities for KNRCL.

Risk and Risk Mitigation

Competition Risk – NHAI / EPC projects face competition from larger players. Any aggressive bidding environment may lead to price cut and low operating margins. To mitigate this risk, where required, KNRCL enters into mutually beneficial partnership with larger players, both domestic and international. This strategic collaboration facilitates financial and technical synergies and enables the Company to compete effectively for projects.

Slow-down in Road Sector: Slowdown on part of the government to award road projects could impact growth prospects. However, this risk is eliminated to a great extent as the present government has taken focused steps to ensure that infrastructure creation moves at a brisk pace.

Construction Risk – Infrastructure projects involve complex design and engineering, significant procurement of equipment and supplies and extensive construction management and other activities conducted over extended time periods, sometimes in remote locations. This could lead to cost-time overruns. KNRCL with its vast experience of project management, balanced capital structuring and efficient cost control measures is well geared to mitigate this risk. Further, KNRCL owns most of the construction and mining equipment enabling it to expedite execution and sustain margins.

Raw-material Risk-- Increases in the cost of raw materials, particularly steel and cement, or their unavailability over the tenor of the contract can impact schedules and profit margins. To mitigate this risk, the Company enters into long term arrangement with suppliers for requisite raw materials for the tenure of the project, thus guaranteeing a continuous flow. Backward integration by sourcing aggregates from its mines, for road projects under execution also enables KNRCL to control costs. Also, leveraging its industry experience, the Company effectively supervises the availability of raw materials thus keeping the cost escalation risk to a minimum.

Interest Rates – Rising interest rates during the life span of a project, fuelled by inflation, can decrease profit margins. To mitigate these risks, the Company ensures that it considers the possibility of a higher interest rate and includes it in the cost of a project before bidding for it. Despite this, KNRCL is open to resorting to interest rate hedging in case the need arises.

Regulatory Risk – Infrastructure projects require strict adherence to government regulations and requirements. These requirements are complex and subject to frequent changes as well as new restrictions. Failure to comply with these requirements may result in significant liability to the Company. To mitigate this risk, KNRCL has a strong regulatory compliance mechanism in place.

Political Risk –Political disharmony can interrupt or disturb the settled commercial terms of a project, as infrastructure projects with their high visibility have a strong element of public interest. With greater thrust on infrastructure by successive governments, this risk has been alleviated to a considerable extent. Further to ensure minimal intrusion from the political machinery, the Company ensures that its work speaks for itself. Also, years of experience in working with various Governments and its agencies in its life span, has made KNRCL fully capable of handling any changes in the political setup.
